Train to become an OECTA PD Network Workshop Presenter

OECTA is expanding its selection of PD Network Workshops and is looking for members who are interested in training to become workshop presenters. In July and August, OECTA will provide training in Toronto for new presenters on a variety of topics. The deadline for applications is June 15.

Once trained, presenters will be expected to provide workshops when requested by local unit presidents or PD committee chairs. OECTA will reimburse presenters' expenses and those who deliver workshops will receive an honorarium.

You may register for one or both of the following training sessions:

Session 1: July 8 - 9, 2010

1. Family Life, Elementary
2. Family Life, Secondary
3. All-Day Kindergarten
4. Assessment and Evaluation
5. Smartboards
6. Assistive Technology

Session 2: August 30 - 31, 2010

1. Workshops on Facilitation Skills for Presenters

Workshop descriptions and the application form are provided on OECTA's website at www.oecta.on.ca.

Before the June 15 deadline, applicants who are able to attend the two-day training sessions must fax the following to Zafirah Visram at 416-925-5252:

1. A covering letter
2. A completed application form
3. Your résumé
4. Two OECTA references

If these documents have been provided to the PD Department in past applications, please note that on the application form. It is not necessary to resubmit these documents. The signature of your unit president or a designate is required on the application form.
