Occasional Teachers Invited to Apply to be Resource Authors and Trainers

Occasional teachers are invited to apply for a position on a team of four elementary and secondary teachers that will:

1. Write resources for occasional teachers
2. Develop a Summer Institute course and an abbreviated 3-hour workshop for occasional teachers to be offered through the PD Network
3. Train presenters

Applications must be received by December 20, 2008.

The new resources and workshops, based on information gathered in focus groups about occasional teachers' needs and wants, must be written by the end of February 2009.

Writers will receive five days release time and reference materials.

Approved expenses for travel to Toronto and accommodation will be reimbursed.

To apply:

By December 20, provide your resumé as well as a letter explaining why you are suitable for this position, including names of two OECTA member references, to Lyn Vause:
